- (d) Informal Resolution. If the Department investigates a complaint, the Department shall make every effort to resolve complaints informally and in a timely manner. The Department's investigation and pursuit of informal resolution does not limit or act as a prerequisite for an Employee's right to bring a private action against an Employer as provided in this Chapter.
- (e) Enforcement. Where compliance with the provisions of this Ordinance is not forthcoming, the Department may, by and through the Commissioner take any appropriate enforcement action to ensure compliance, including but not limited to the following:

Any agreement between the Employee and Employer that would violate this Ordinance is no defense to any administrative or civil action.

(iii) If the Department intends to investigate the alleged violation, it shall notify the Employee or representative by certified mail of its decision within 65 calendar days of the postmark date of the notice pursuant to subsection (f)(i). An Employer shall not use its absence-control policy, scheduling policy, or any other policy of the Employer to count any request for or refusal of a change in schedule as an absence or other reason that triggers discipline, discharge, demotion, suspension, punitive schedule changes, decreases in the desirability of work assignments, and other acts of harassment or any other adverse activity.

It shall be unlawful for an Employer to interfere with, restrain, deny, change work days or hours scheduled, or hire, rehire, terminate, or suspend, even temporarily, an Employee to avoid coverage under this Chapter.

(e) Retention of Records. Each Employer shall maintain for at least five years for each Employee a record of his or her name, hours worked, pay rate, and records necessary to demonstrate compliance with this Chapter, including but not limited to good faith estimates of work schedules, initial posted schedule and all subsequent changes to that schedule, consent to work hours where such consent is required by this Chapter, and documentation of offers of hours of work to existing staff and responses to such offers.

Each Employer shall provide each Employee a copy of the records relating to such Employee upon the Employee's reasonable request.

(f) City Access. Each Employer shall permit access to work sites and relevant records for authorized City representatives for the purpose of monitoring compliance with this Chapter and investigating Employee complaints of noncompliance, including production for inspection and copying of its Employment records, but without allowing Social Security numbers to become a matter of public record.
